Most Valuable Partnership Grants – Applications Available on November 1

OCOEE, Fla. – Applications for the City of Ocoee’s Most Valuable Partnership Grants will be available beginning November 1. Ocoee homeowner associations and civic groups may submit projects which beautify neighborhoods, address public safety concerns, or foster cultural, recreational, or educational wants and needs of the neighborhood or organization. There is $12,000 available and the maximum grant award is $2,000.

The deadline to submit applications is November 30. Applications will be available online at www.ocoee.org or at the City Hall reception desk. Completed applications should be mailed or delivered to City Hall, Community Relations, 150 North Lakeshore Drive, Ocoee, Florida, 34761.

The goal of the Most Valuable Partnership Grant Program is to improve the quality of life in Ocoee by assisting residents and organizations in making improvements to their neighborhoods or creating programs which benefit citizens.

For more information on the MVP Grant Program, visit www.ocoee.org or call 407- 905-3100.
