Easter Eggstravaganza to be Held on April 20

OCOEE, Fla. – Thousands of candy and prize-filled plastic eggs will be scattered over the grounds at the City of Ocoee's annual Easter Eggstravaganza on Saturday, April 20 at the Jim Beech Recreation Center, 1820 A.D. Mims Road. The event begins promptly at 10:30 a.m. and is open to children ages 12 and younger. Children should bring a basket or sack to scoop up the colorful eggs. Admission is free.

In addition to the Easter Egg hunt, there will be a variety of fun activities from 10 a.m. to noon. The Easter Bunny will be available for photos and there will be prizes, inflatables and face painting. Snacks will be available for purchase. Attendees are encouraged to bring non-perishable food items that will be donated to the West Orange Christian Service Center.

An Easter Coloring Contest is being held for children ages 12 and younger. The contest, sponsored by the City of Ocoee's Parks and Recreation Advisory Board, encourages children to have fun and be creative. Coloring sheets may be picked up at the Jim Beech Recreation Center or downloaded at <https://www.occoee.org/185/Special-Events>. The deadline to submit coloring sheets is Thursday, April 18 by 9 p.m. Prizes will be given to the top three finalists in each age group.

For more information, please contact the Ocoee Parks and Recreation Department at 407-905-3180 or visit www.occoee.org.
